

IMPACT OF PICO POWER PROJECT ON INCLUSIVE GROWTH OF SELF HELP GROUP MEMBERS IN BANJARUMALE TRIBAL AREA

Sunil D'souza***

Dr. T.S Devaraja****

*Research Scholar, Department Of Studies In Commerce, Post Graduation Centre Hassan, University Of Mysore, Hassan, Karnataka, India,

**Associate Professor, Department Of Studies In Commerce, Post Graduation Centre Hassan, University Of Mysore, Hassan, Karnataka, India,

---

ABSTRACT

People who are excluded from the socio economic developmental parameters and those who are not enjoying the basic facilities which they need to access that kind of people can't standardize themselves by including them in the financial inclusion aspects but they need to be considered in the overall development aspects then only they are developed in the society and they will be well organized the society. This paper is a study on the performance of the Business Correspondents (BC) model in the inclusive growth of Self Help Group Members in Banjarumale Tribal area in Dakshina Kannada District Karnataka, India through helping them in installing pico power project it clearly defines the impact of Pico power project establishment of in the Socio-Economic status of Banjarumale tribal people in Dakshina Kannada District Karnataka, India.

Keywords: Self Help Groups, Pico Power Project, Organizational profile, technical aspects of Pico power project, Socio-Economic status of Self Help Group Members.