

A Peer Reviewed International Journal of Asian
Academic Research Associates

AARJSH

ASIAN ACADEMIC RESEARCH
JOURNAL OF SOCIAL SCIENCE & HUMANITIES

CHILD LABOUR IN INDIA: A BRIEF SURVEY

NEELAM KUMARI*; NISHA

*PH.D Research Scholar
Department of Political science
M.D. University Rohtak

PH.D Research Scholar
Department of Political science
M.D. University Rohtak

Abstract

The paper throw an adequate light on multifaceted views on problematic areas of child labour prevails in the society. The study has tried to established a cause effect relationship of steady growth of child labour in the cities and metropolitan regions of India. In order to check this problems various government and non-government organizations have been taking some of curative measures to overcome this problem, so that every child should get a privilege for getting freedom from child labour and may acquire good education for becoming human resource for Indian society. It is therefore, become imperative to protect the children's right at any cost, so that the future of the children of country through some of preventive and curative measures.

Keywords: Child labour, cause effect relationship, role of government non-government organizations (NGO's), human resource.
